

SNEAK PREVIEW OF THIS WEEK'S

go!

THEATRE

MUSIC

FILM

go! – your guide to entertainment and leisure free inside the Kent and Sussex Courier and Sevenoaks Chronicle

MUST DO THIS WEEK

CABARET NIGHT WITH THE STARS

STARS from the stage and screen will be descending on Crowborough this Saturday for the first in a series of cabaret nights.

Recall Productions, a theatre company based in the town, is staging the night which will include rising young British actor Chris Rankin – Percy Weasley in the Harry Potter films.

The evening will be hosted by Drew Baker who has just performed at the Royal Opera House and has directed many touring shows world wide.

Director Adam Brackenborough told Focus: "It's going to be a great night. We've got some really top performers coming down, it will be something a bit different for Crowborough."

Crowborough CCA Hall. Doors open at 7pm. Tickets, which cost £5, are available from the box office on 01892 611544.

Let's get skanky

The Skatonics

East Peckham Social Club, East Peckham

Dig out your pork pie hat and shades and join East Peckham's own ska experts for an evening of good old-fashioned skanking.

The Skatonics are a seven piece band who have been playing to enthusiastic crowds across Kent since spring 2007.

Their speciality is playing their own versions of the classic ska sounds from the 1960s and the Two Tone Records era of the late 1970s and early 1980s.

To date their two-hour shows have included support slots for Ska originals Neville Staples of The Specials AKA and Rhoda Dakar from The Bodysnatchers.

DJ Ready Steady SKA will also be on hand to warm up the audience with a connoisseur's selection of ska and reggae originals on vinyl.

Saturday March 1, phone venue on 01622 871339 for ticket info or visit www.skatonics.co.uk

Sevenoaks Rotary 10k Run

in Knole Park Sunday March 16th
Entries still being taken